Lauds of the Blessed Virgin Mary

According to the Washtenaw Use

It is written in the Gospel of St. Mark, that Our Lord, after healing many afflicted with disease for an entire night, rose "very early, going out, he went into a desert place: and there he prayed." And so, in praying Lauds we imitate our tireless Saviour, following him as did Simon, to center our hearts on God, that we may receive the strength to carry out His Will. O Immaculate Virgin, pray for us that we may overcome sloth and malaise, and join thy Son in prayer and obesiance to the will of the Almighty Father. Amen.

Before Lauds

Preparatory Prayers

All kneel and pray silently. As you say the prayer Aperi, Domine*, make the sign of the cross with your thumb first over your lips, and then over your heart.*

Áperi, ✠ Dómine, os meum ad benedicéndum nomen sanctum tuum: ✠ munda quoque cor meum ab ómnibus vanis, pervérsis et aliénis cogitatiónibus; intelléctum illúmina, afféctum inflámma, ut digne, atténte ac devóte hoc Offícium beátæ Vírginis Maríæ recitáre váleam, et exaudíri mérear ante conspéctum divínæ Majestátis tuæ. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. Amen.

Open, ✠ O Lord, my mouth to bless Thy holy Name; ✠ cleanse also my heart from all vain, evil, and wandering thoughts; enlighten my understanding and kindle my affections; that I may worthily, attentively, and devoutly say this Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and so merit to be heard before the presence of Thy divine Majesty. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Domine, in unióne illíus divínæ intentiónis, qua ipse in terris laudes Deo persolvísti, has tibi Horas persólvo.

O Lord, in union with that divine intention wherewith thou, whilst here on earth, didst render praises unto God, I desire to offer this my Office of prayer unto thee.

Ave María, grátia plena, Dóminus tecum. Benedícta tu in muliéribus, et benedíctus fructus ventris tui, Jesus. Sancta María, Mater Dei, ora pro nobis peccatóribus, nunc et in hora mortis nostræ. Amen.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

LAUDS

Invitatory

All make the Sign of the Cross as the Officiant says the "Deus in Adjutorium". All continue together with the entire "Gloria Patri" after the response:

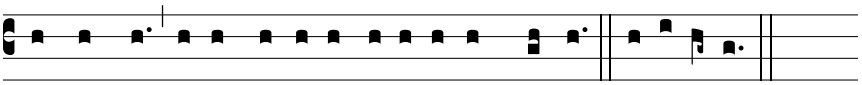

D e- us, ✠ in adju-tó-ri- um me- um inténde. ℟. Dómi-ne, ad adju-vándum me festí-na. (bow) Gló-ri- a Patri, et Fí- li- o et Spi- rí-tu- i Sancto. (rise) Si-cut e-rat in princí-pi- o, et nunc, et semper et in sæcu-la sæcu-ló-rum. Amen. Alle-lú-ia.

From Septuagesima until Easter, Alleluia is replaced with:

Laus ti-bi Dómi-ne, Rex æ-térnæ gló-ri- æ.

For 'Christmastide, see page 25.

O God, come to my assistance.

O Lord, make haste to help me.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

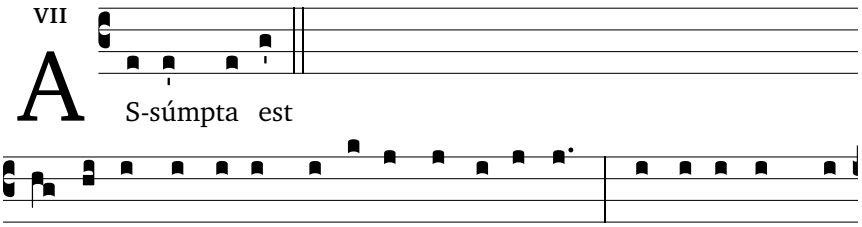

Alleluia.

Praise to thee, O Lord, King of everlasting glory.

THROUGHOUT THE YEAR

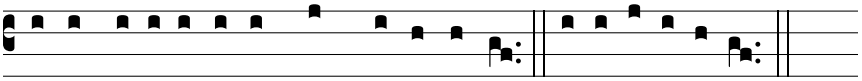

Psalm 92

The Cantor intones the antiphon and leads the first Psalm verse to the star (*). All sit, while the Cantor's side finishes the first verse together. The Officiants side then says the second Psalm verse, with each side alternating thereafter. The remaining Psalms are intoned up to the asterisk by the Cantor, repeating the pattern of sitting and standing until the antiphon is said in full at the very end.

The Virgin Mary...

1. Sing joyfully to God, all the earth: serve ye the Lord with gladness.

2. Come in before his presence: with exceeding great joy.

3. Know ye that the Lord he is God: he made us, and not we ourselves.

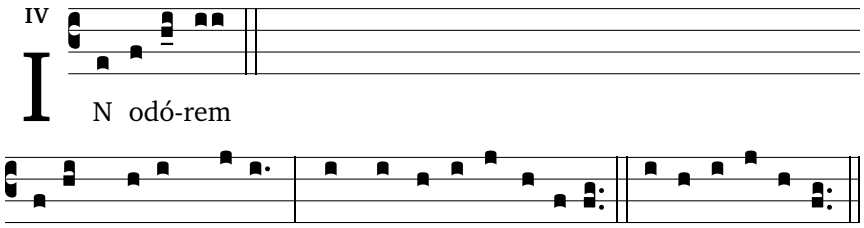

4. We are his people and the sheep of his pasture: Go ye into his gates with praise, into his courts with hymns; and give glory to him.

5. Praise ye his name: For the Lord is sweet, his mercy endureth for ever: and his truth to generation and generation.

8. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

The Virgin Mary was taken up to the heavenly chamber, where the King of kings sitteth on his starry throne.

3. In a desert land, and where there is no way, and no water: so in the sanctuary have I come before thee, to see thy power and thy glory.

4. For thy mercy is better than lives: thee my lips shall praise.

5. Thus will I bless thee all my life long: and in thy name I will lift up my hands.

6. Let my soul be filled as with marrow and fatness: and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips.

7. If I have remembered thee upon my bed, I will meditate on thee in the morning: Because thou hast been my helper.

8. And I will rejoice under the covert of thy wings: My soul hath stuck close to thee: thy right hand hath received me.

9. But they have sought my soul in vain, they shall go into the lower parts of the earth: They shall be delivered into the hands of the sword, they shall be the portions of foxes.

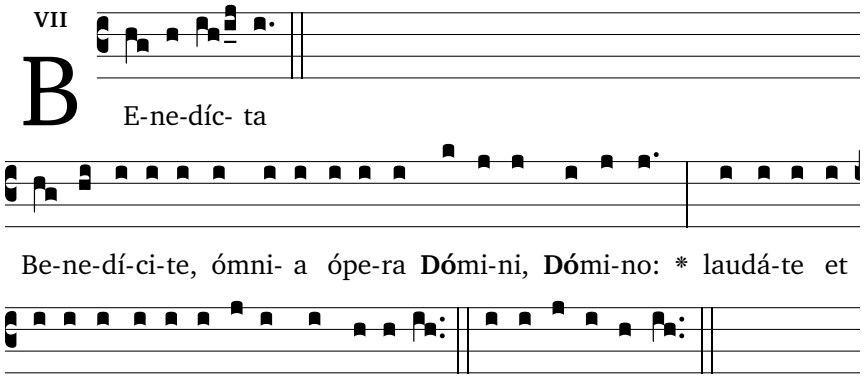

10. But the king shall rejoice in God, all they shall be praised that swear by him: because the mouth is stopped of them that speak wicked things.

11. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

The Little Chapter: Song of Solomon 6:8

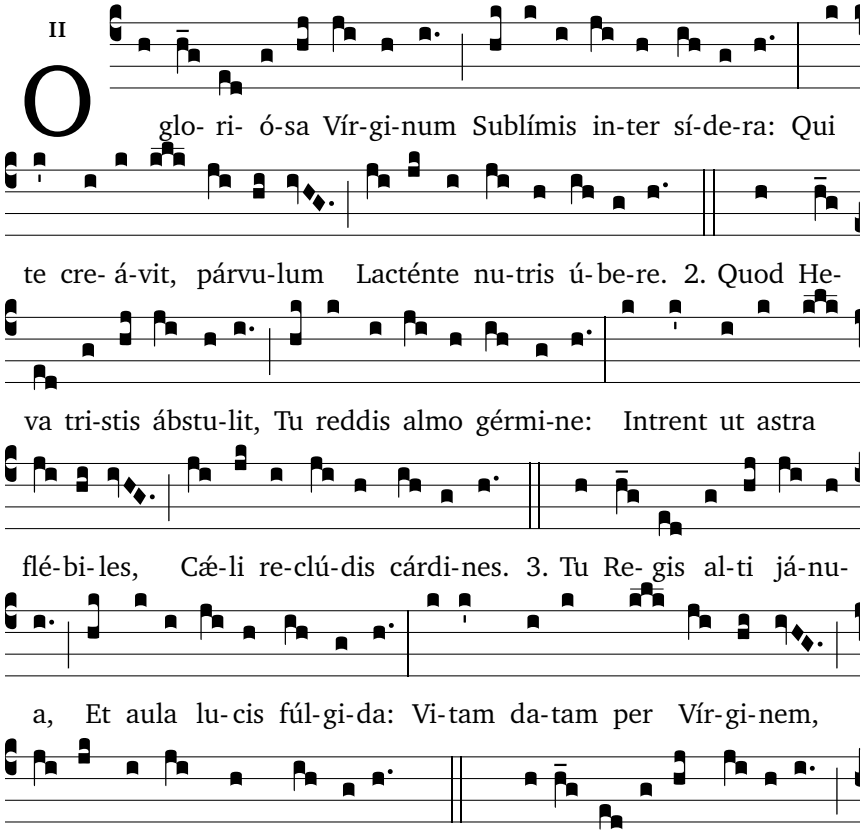

The Officiant leads the Little Chapter.

Viderunt eam filiæ Sion, † et beatissimam prædicaverunt, et reginæ laudaverunt eam.
℟. Deo gratias.

The daughters Sion saw her, and declared her most blessed: and the queens, they praised her.
℟. Thanks be to God.

Hymn

The Cantor leads the hymn, which is said standing.

O Queen of all the virgin choir! Enthrone'd above the starry sky!

Who with pure milk from ty own breast, Thy own Creator didst supply.

What man had lost in hapless Eve, Thy sacred womb to man restores;

Thou to the wretched here beneath, Hast open'd Heaven's eternal doors.

Hail, O refulgent Hall of light! Hail, Gate sublime of Heavan's high King!

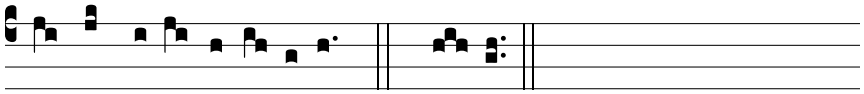

Through thee redeem'd to endless life, Thy praise let all the nations sing.

O Jesu! born of Virgin bright, Immortal glory be to thee;

Praise to the Father infnite, And Holy Ghost eternally. Amen.

The Benedictus (Canticle of Zachary)

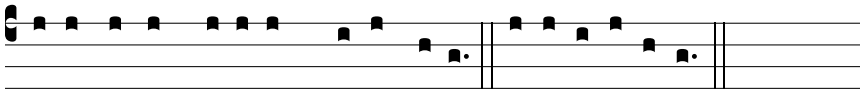

As in the Psalms, the Cantor intones the antiphon and leads the first verse to the star (*). All remain standing during the Benedictus; when the Cantor intones the Benedictus itself, all make the Sign of the Cross. The antiphon changes to the Regina cæli during Paschal time, with the verses of the Canticle changing to the associated tone.

The Angel Gabriel was sent...

1. The Lord hath reigned, he is clothed with beauty: the Lord is clothed with strength, and hath girded himself.

2. For he hath established the world: And it shall not be moved.

3. Thy throne is prepared from of old: thou art from everlasting.

Hail Mary...

1. Sing joyfully to God, all the earth: serve ye the Lord with gladness.

2. Come in before his presence: with exceeding great joy.

3. Know ye that the Lord he is God: he made us, and not we ourselves.

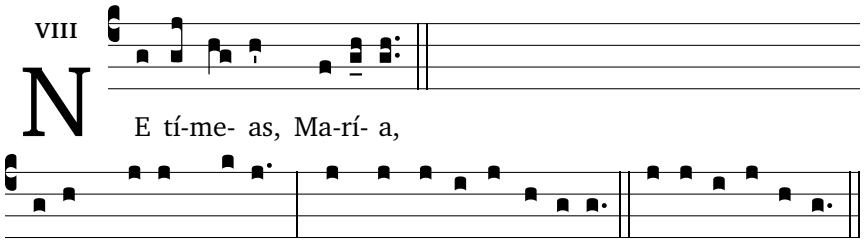

4. We are his people and the sheep of his pasture: Go ye into his gates with praise, into his courts with hymns; and give glory to him.

5. Praise ye his name: For the Lord is sweet, his mercy endureth for ever: and his truth to generation and generation.

8. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

6. Let my soul be filled as with marrow and fatness: and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips.

7. If I have remembered thee upon my bed, I will meditate on thee in the morning: Because thou hast been my helper.

8. And I will rejoice under the covert of thy wings: My soul hath stuck close to thee: thy right hand hath received me.

9. But they have sought my soul in vain, they shall go into the lower parts of the earth: They shall be delivered into the hands of the sword, they shall be the portions of foxes.

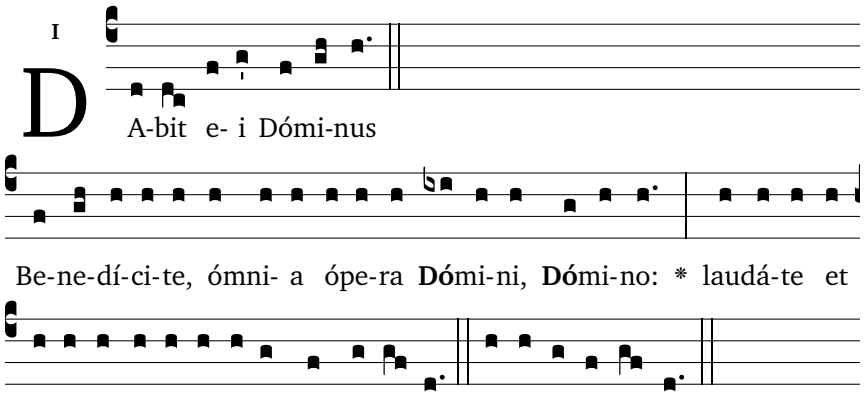

10. But the king shall rejoice in God, all they shall be praised that swear by him: because the mouth is stopped of them that speak wicked things.

10. Beasts and all cattle: serpents and feathered fowls.

11. Kings of the earth and all people: princes and all judges of the earth:

12. Young men and maidens: let the old with the younger, praise the name of the Lord: For his name alone is exalted.

13. The praise of him is above heaven and earth: and he hath exalted the horn of his people.

14. A hymn to all his saints: to the children of Israel, a people approaching to him. Alleluia.

15. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:

16. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Behold the handmaid of the Lord: be it done unto me according to thy word.

The Little Chapter: Isaiah 6:1-2

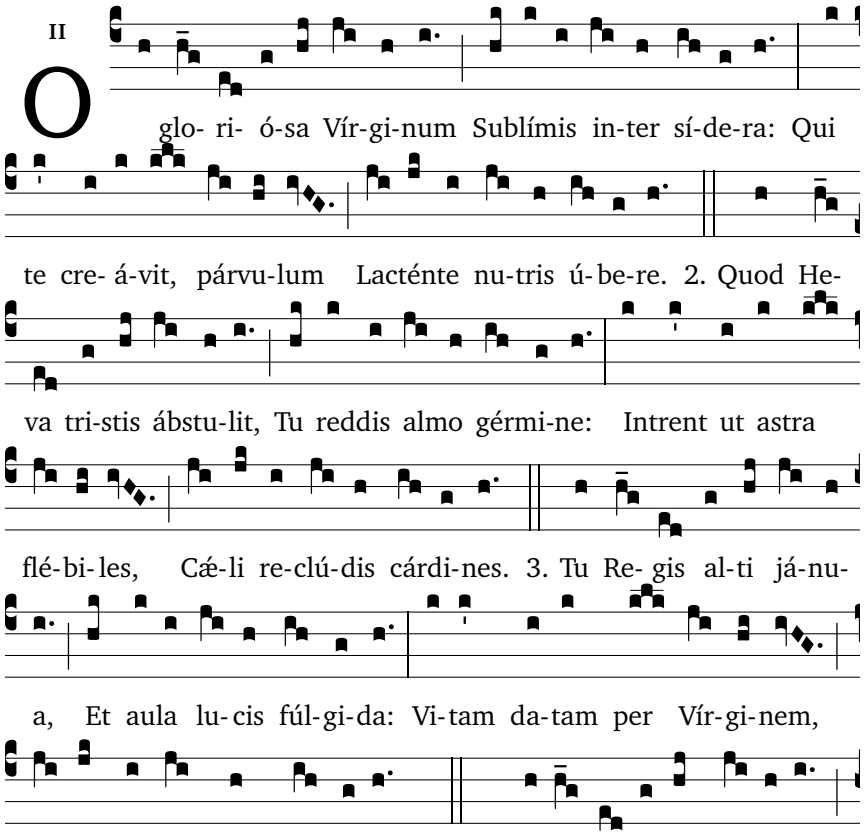

The Officiant leads the Little Chapter.

Hymn

The Cantor leads the hymn, which is said standing.

O Queen of all the virgin choir! Enthrone'd above the starry sky!

Who with pure milk from ty own breast, Thy own Creator didst supply.

What man had lost in hapless Eve, Thy sacred womb to man restores;

Thou to the wretched here beneath, Hast open'd Heaven's eternal doors.

Hail, O refulgent Hall of light! Hail, Gate sublime of Heavan's high King!

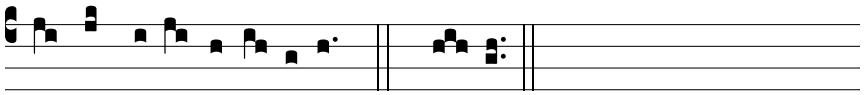

Through thee redeem'd to endless life, Thy praise let all the nations sing.

O Jesu! born of Virgin bright, Immortal glory be to thee;

Praise to the Father infnite, And Holy Ghost eternally. Amen.

The Benedictus (Canticle of Zachary)

As in the Psalms, the Cantor intones the antiphon and leads the first verse to the star (*). All remain standing during the Benedictus; when the Cantor intones the Benedictus itself, all make the Sign of the Cross. The antiphon changes to the Regina cæli during Paschal time, with the verses of the Canticle changing to the associated tone.

4. For thy mercy is better than lives: thee my lips shall praise.

5. Thus will I bless thee all my life long: and in thy name I will lift up my hands.

6. Let my soul be filled as with marrow and fatness: and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips.

7. If I have remembered thee upon my bed, I will meditate on thee in the morning: Because thou hast been my helper.

8. And I will rejoice under the covert of thy wings: My soul hath stuck close to thee: thy right hand hath received me.

9. But they have sought my soul in vain, they shall go into the lower parts of the earth: They shall be delivered into the hands of the sword, they shall be the portions of foxes.

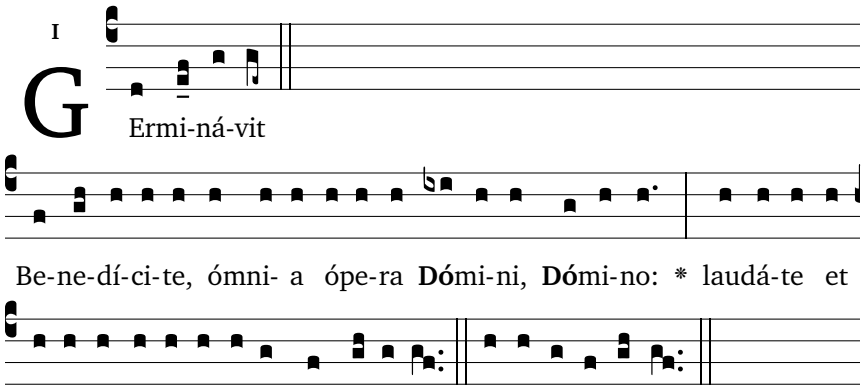

10. But the king shall rejoice in God, all they shall be praised that swear by him: because the mouth is stopped of them that speak wicked things.

11. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Behold Mary...

1. Praise ye the Lord from the heavens: praise ye him in the high places.

2. Praise ye him, all his angels: praise ye him, all his hosts.

3. Praise ye him, O sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars and light.

4. Praise him, ye heavens of heavens: and let all the waters that are above the heavens Praise the name of the Lord.

5. For he spoke, and they were made: he commanded, and they were created.

6. He hath established them for ever, and for ages of ages: he hath made a decree, and it shall not pass away.

7. Praise the Lord from the earth: ye dragons, and all ye deeps:

8. Fire, hail, snow, ice, stormy winds: which fulfill his word:

9. Mountains and all hills: fruitful trees and all cedars:

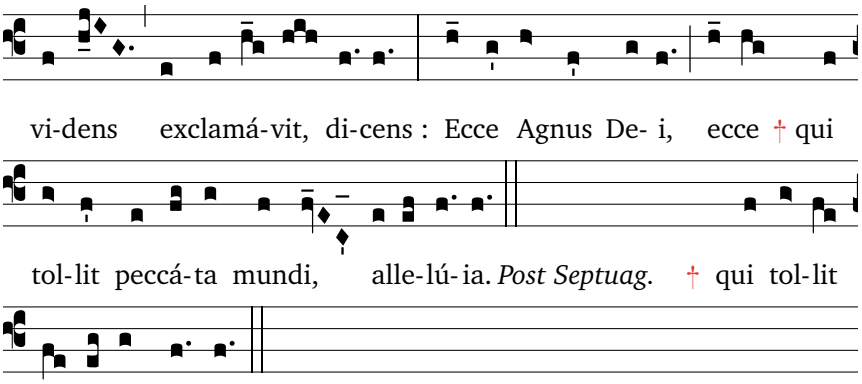

10. Beasts and all cattle: serpents and feathered fowls.

11. Kings of the earth and all people: princes and all judges of the earth:

12. Young men and maidens: let the old with the younger, praise the name of the Lord: For his name alone is exalted.

13. The praise of him is above heaven and earth: and he hath exalted the horn of his people.

14. A hymn to all his saints: to the children of Israel, a people approaching to him. Alleluia.

15. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:

16. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Behold Mary hath borne us the Saviour, whom John beholding, exclaimed: Behold the Lamb of God; behold him who taketh away the sins of the world, (alleluia).

The Little Chapter: Isaiah 6:1-2

The Officiant leads the Little Chapter.

Egredietur virga de radice Jesse, † et flos de radice e*jus ascendet. Et requiescet super eum Spiritus Domini.
℟. Deo gratias.

There shall come forth a rod out of the root of Jesse, and a flower shall rise up out of his root: and the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him.
℟. Thanks be to God.

Hymn

The Cantor leads the hymn, which is said standing.

O Queen of all the virgin choir! Enthrone'd above the starry sky!

Who with pure milk from ty own breast, Thy own Creator didst supply.

What man had lost in hapless Eve, Thy sacred womb to man restores;

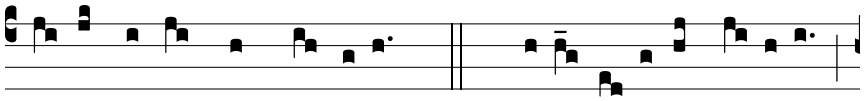

Thou to the wretched here beneath, Hast open'd Heaven's eternal doors.

Hail, O refulgent Hall of light! Hail, Gate sublime of Heavan's high King!

Through thee redeem'd to endless life, Thy praise let all the nations sing.

O Jesu! born of Virgin bright, Immortal glory be to thee;

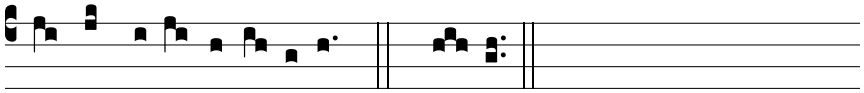

Praise to the Father infnite, And Holy Ghost eternally. Amen.

Gentes re-démptæ, pláu-di-te. (bow) 4. Je-su, ti-bi sit gló-ri- a,

Qui na-tus es de Vír-gi-ne, Cum Patre et almo Spí- ri-tu,

In sempi-térna sæcu-la. (rise) A-men.

The Benedictus (Canticle of Zachary)

As in the Psalms, the Cantor intones the antiphon and leads the first verse to the star (*). All remain standing during the Benedictus; when the Cantor intones the Benedictus itself, all make the Sign of the Cross. The antiphon changes to the Regina cæli during Paschal time, with the verses of the Canticle changing to the associated tone.

Continue to the Conclusion on the next page.

9. And thou, child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of The Lord to prepare his ways.

10. To give knowledge of salvation unto his people: for the remission of their sins.

11. Through the bowels of the mercy of our God: whereby the orient from on high hath visited us.

12. To enlighten them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death: to direct our feet into the way of peace.

13. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.

A wonderful mystery is declared today: new things are wrought in nature; God is made man. What he was he hath remained, and what he was not he hath assumed, suffering neither confusion nor division.

Conclusion

The Officiant leads the conclusion (the associated collect varies according to the season):

℣. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.
℟. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.

℣. O Lord, hear my prayer.
℟. And let my cry come unto thee.

Throughout the Year and in Advent:

Oremus. Deus, qui de beatæ Mariæ Virginis utero Verbum tuum, angelo nuntiante, † carnem suscipere voluisti; præsta supplicibus tuis, ut qui vere eam Genitricem De*i credimus, ejus apud te intercessionibus adjuvemur. * Per eumdem Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum filium tuum, qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritu Sancti Deus, per omnia sæcula sæculorum.

℟. Amen.

Let us pray. O God, who wast pleased that thy Word, at the message of an angel, should take flesh in the womb of the Blessed Virgin Mary; grant to us, thy humble servants that, as we believe her to be truly the Mother of God, we may be assisted also by her intercessions with thee. Through the same Lord Jesus Christ Thy Son, who livest and reignest with Thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, world without end.

℟. Amen.

In Christmastide:

Oremus. Deus, qui salus æternæ, beatæ Mariæ virginitate foecunda, humano generi præmia præstitisti: † tribue, quæsumus; ut ipsam pro nobis intercedere *sentiamus, per quam meruimus auctorem vitæ suscipere, * Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum Filium tuum. Qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti, Deus, per omnia sæcula sæculorum.

℟. Amen.

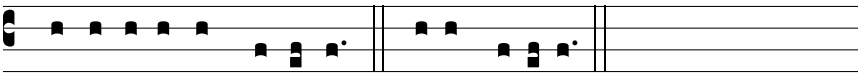

Let us pray. O God, who, by the fruiful virginity of Blessed Mary, hast given to mankind the rewards of eternal salvation; grant, we beseech thee, that we may experience her intercession for us, through whom we have received the author of life, Our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son. Who liveth and reigneth with thee in the unity of the Holy Ghost, God, world without end.

℟. Amen.

℣. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.
℟. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.

℣. O Lord, hear my prayer.
℟. And let my cry come unto thee.

See the next page for the Paschal Time variation of the Benedicamus. Otherwise the common tone is used:

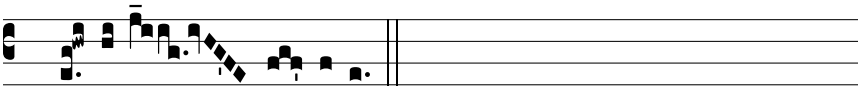

℣. Be-ne-di-cámus Dómi-no. ℟. De- o grá-ti- as.

℣. Let us bless the Lord.
℟. Thanks be to God.

In Paschal Time:

℣. Be-ne-di-cámus Dó- mi-no.

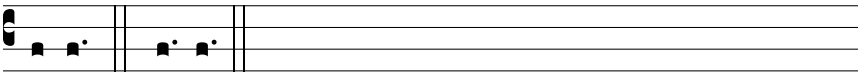

℟. Dé- o grá- ti- as.

The Officiant says the following in a low recto tono:

℣. Fi-dé-li- um á-nimæ per mi-se-ri-córdi- am De- i, requi- éscant in pa-ce- . ℟. Amen.

℣. Let us bless the Lord.
℟. Thanks be to God.

℣. May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
℟. Amen.
